GUIDELINES

SAW Video Media Art Centre is celebrating independent movie-making in the Ottawa-Gatineau region and is looking for your nominations! Know a local independent video artist that you think deserves some praise? Have you been working with a director who merits recognition? Nominate them for SAW Video's 2nd annual Ottawa Independent Video Awards (OIVA) and help us celebrate the best and brightest in our region's independent video and film community!

The 2nd edition of OIVA will be accepting nominations for 8 awards:

- Best Director - Fiction
- Best Director - Experimental
- Best Director - Documentary
- Best Director Under 25
- Best Cinematography
- Best Sound Design
- Best Editing
- Rob Thompson Video Award

Nominations are open to any resident of the Ottawa-Gatineau region.

TO NOMINATE:

Fill out the nomination form below and send to: oiva.saw@gmail.com
(Note: only electronic submissions will be considered)

ELIGIBLE: All independent films or videos in any genre (documentary, narrative, animation, experimental), video installation, short films, feature films, web series, vj performances, music videos, etc.

WHAT DOES INDEPENDENT MEAN?

Independent means a work in which the director owns the copyright of the work and has retained editorial control.

NOT ELIGIBLE: Work that is NOT eligible for an OIVA award is corporate work, advertising, wedding videos, PSAs, in-house work created by a broadcaster, and student work created as part of an assignment.

Note: You do not need to be a SAW Video member to be nominated or to nominate an individual. Artists can nominate themselves. Current SAW Video board and staff are ineligible for the award.

JUDGING

Nominations will be reviewed by a committee of professionals and peers. A winner from the shortlist of nominees will be announced at the OIVA Awards gala, which will be held Saturday February 24, 2018 at Arts Court.

ROB THOMPSON AWARD:

The Rob Thompson Award recognizes an individual from the Ottawa-Gatineau region who has persevered as a media artist and has also contributed as a mentor or community builder and includes a $500 cash prize. The Rob Thompson award will be judged independently by a separate committee.
